“ Ms. Allison Brister was such a great friend I talked with her at least once a week .. I'm going to miss our talks even though I was a little older than her she always had motherly advice.. I married my long time boyfriend because it was time and because Allison said you would be made an honest woman ,like the old folks use to say ! She was amazing woman of God and I'm gonna miss her rest in heaven Allison.

“ Was one of the most humble and beautiful person you could ever have met. Hard to let go of someone who makes you feel like she did. Earth’s lost; Heaven’s gain. I’m just glad God allowed me to be not only a friend but my family.

“ I was very sadden to hear about the unexpected passing of my sister-in-law. You will be truly missed, along with that laugh of yours at our family gatherings. More importantly your kind and sweet spirit will be missed as well. To my nephew and niece we love you, and wish you peace, comfort and courage at this time of sorrow.
