“ My granddad was very stern and hard working man, great father, and grandfather. He always wanted what's best for anyone he loved. He kept that water bed forever! Everytime I called granddad he would say "Grandson when u gone have me some great grandbabies!" So at 40 years old, my fiance finally got pregnant. My first child! ArNiya Leilani Cook. I drove to Mississippi and was so happy to show my grandad my fiance and her baby bump. We were waiting till my daughter was old enough to travel to Mississippi from Indiana. For Christmas we planned to visit this year but my grandpa was ready to take his trip to Heaven. But I know he's watching over his family. Grandpa u will truly be missed! Loved and never forgotten!! Love u Pops! Arcine Cook III.

I will truly miss my Uncle RC. When I moved in my home I had been in it about a year when I saw him riding down the street. He stopped and said with that big grin, "Hey neice"!!!Where you goin??" I said "home ... I live here!!!" Come to find out he lived almost directly across the street from me!!! My mom used to love to see him and talk to him and we all loved having the same name when he saw us..."neice"if you were a girl and "nephew" if you were a boy. Heaven has truly gained an angel.. Rest in power uncle....
