“ Dear Best friend/Mommy

I'm really lost for words because apart of me left with you . This is one of the toughest battles I've had to face. I've never felt this empty but so strong at the same time! I really appreciate what you done for me and my brother even we didn't understand sometimes coming up. God blessed us w the most amazing MOTHER, GUIDE AND BEST FRIEND any one can ask for! I thank him for that! I never thought I'd be w out you because it has always been just us! You taught me to me a strong,independent, and successful young woman and I thank you so much for that because I see so much of you in me! However, mama I wasn't ready not to go on w out you in my presence! My heart hurts not being able to hug and kiss you whenever! They say there's a reason for everything and time will heal but neither time or reason will change how I feel ! You will always be in my heart forever. I don't understand why you're gone but God called you home and I know you'll never leave me! We shared an unbroken bond and death won't tear it apart! You taught us how to take care of one of another growing up and we WILL do just that! When I saw you smile, that gave me peace! God gained him a angel. Kiss Grandma and pawpaw for me, I love y'all soo much !!

“You did Good Mama, Me and Pun going to be okay!”

“ Family, I am so very sorry for your loss. Ava was such a wonderful person inside and out. She will never be forgotten. Ava was so beautiful, sweet and loving. I will never forget her morning inspirational quotes and encouraging words. Family, look to God for strength, peace, endurance and understanding in this trying time. Ava's beautiful smile, encouragement, kind heart and beautiful spirit will forever be remembered. Rest up Ava! You are loved and you will truly be missed. Agape love to Ava's family. Toni D.
