“ My name is Kendral Demond Horton, and I was a college classmate of hers at Southwest Mississippi Community College. We had taken the same Business and Marketing major together, and taken some classes together. She had a extremely vibrant and uplifting vibe about herself. She was most definitely an extremely hilarious "character"of a human being. And she would help anybody, if she seen they needed help. One time, I had a whole bunch of cold drinks that customers had ordered from me for a fundraiser we had, and she blessed me with a ride, and helped me to get my drinks loaded on her truck tailgate, and taken me to my cousin's apartment to get them unloaded. I will be forever grateful for that moment, and forever blessed to have met her, and becoming friends with her. Rest in peace, baby girl.

“ Capricia was my student in the 8th grade at South Pike Junior High. I ran into her at Walmart not long ago and she had grown up into a wonderful young woman. I feel blessed to have had that meeting with her. She will be missed by so many. I will keep you all in my prayers.
