“ The first time I met Darlene I knew she was special. Something about her made you feel warm and comfortable. She did not have to announce that she was a Child of God, you just knew. I thank God for allowing us to have her in our lives. She will be missed.

“Darlene was so much more than a co-worker; she was a dear friend, confidant, motivator, spiritual mentor, leader, etc. Our partnership was built first and foremost with us putting God first, and knowing that “united we stand and divided we fall”. She kept me on my toes both in my spiritual life and in my team leadership. We were a dynamic duo, to say the least! She kept me straight, and I let her know when her pride attempted to take the reigns. I could hear her laugh from a block away, and I couldn’t help but laugh with her. She’s loved and respected by everyone who’s path she crossed. I know she’s home now where she truly belongs. I thank the Lord that I was able to share in the joy of knowing this beautiful soul during her short time on this earth, and I look forward to rejoicing with her when we meet again.
