“ I remember my summers visiting my grandparents and how David loved hanging out with my cousin, Theresa whom he would marry. He was a sound spoken gentleman with a genuine smile. They were dating as teens and you knew wherever Therea would be, David would show up.

As their love continued to grow, they decided to get married. I was honored to be a bridesmaid in their wedding. What a grand time we had!!

Their marriage was a true partnership. They both loved and valued each other greatly. They raised great children and David's mild demeanor stayed consistent throughout every season of his life.

As we celebrate David's life, I will always remember the love and devotion he had for his wife, and his entire family. David's relationship with his mom, sister and his nephew was priceless. David, a gentle giant who left a mark on how to love and value family.

Praying for you and love you dearly!!
