“ My dear cousin Eddie Ruth, I will always remember that time you and Loreen talked me into picking pickles, it will be fun and you can make some money. Y'all picked me up before the sun came up, I filled my canvas bag with the biggest cucumbers I could find, seemed like we were out there for hours and then that man said my haul was worth $2.98 cents. Cousin I was too tired to be mad at y'all that day. I laughed about it later but it was the first and last time I ever went out with y'all. I always thought I would see you 'next time I'm home. Rest in Heaven beloved. Cousin Pat Quinn Guyton ❤️🙏
