“ I met Pastor Emanuel Powell one day when I knocked on his door to ask him can I hunt on his property. At the time I didn't know he was a pastor. His jovial smile and southern accent brought comfort to my soul. For the next twenty plus years, our relationship grew extremely close. So close that when I needed wise counseling, I would either call Pastor Powell or take the hour and a half drive from Louisiana to Mississippi. We would sit on his front porch. There, Pastor Powell would listen to me pour my heart out. I would walk away with wise counseling and a peace of mind. I extend my condolences to the Powell family. I will always remember Pastor Emanuel Powell and I will miss him dearly.
