“ Frank was one of the kindest persons you could ever meet. He sold me several cars in his life time and always checked my on me after my purchase. I last saw him at Ray Brandt’s funeral and I was so glad to see him. You will always be my in my heart and prayers.

He told salesman John Stelly who became an owner of several dealerships! You ain't gonna make any money around here! He told me the same thing when I started there in 93! He would try to psych all the new young people out so they wouldn't want to grab customers but he would! He would say it's slow but have three deliveries on the board!
