After relocating to New Orleans, Louisiana, she continued her spiritual journey by joining Haven Trinity United Methodist Church, under the leadership of Reverend Charles Washington. Glenda's unwavering faith sustained her throughout her life, and she remained an active participant in church and community events. In her later years, Glenda moved to Crosby, Texas, where she resided until her health declined. She was cherished by her family and friends for her nurturing spirit, warm heart, and infectious smile.

Glenda was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Lloyd Crawford, as well as her parents, John Henry Jones and Tempie Lee McGee Jones.

She leaves behind a loving legacy, including her daughter, Tempie Marie Crawford of Crosby, Texas; son, Lloyd Anthony Crawford of Baytown, Texas; and grandson, Lloyd Leon "Binky" Crawford of Cypress, Texas. Tempie & Andy, we can't imagine what you must be feeling right now, but we want you to know that we are just a phone call away despite the loss of the physical presence of your mother that you loved so dearly. May God Bless and keep you all in this hour of sorrow. Our prayers are with you. Continue to trust in God, and he has promised never to leave you alone. I will miss her because she was my neighbor and a good friend. May her soul rest in peace.
