“ Grandma Helen (Big Mama) was loving, and caring person who I’m glad was apart of my life. I took trips to MS during the summer with my cousins Jamie and Sandi. And Grandma Helen was very warm and inviting. Even dealing with memory lies. She still remembered who I was and still this day. Nobody can say my name as hard as she do with her southern accent. I want thank Grandma Helen for accepting me as one of her own grandchildren from the very start. My heart hurts that she’s gone but I’m glad she’s not suffering and in a better place. I love and miss you. Krystal
