“ I remember when he worked in Pike center mart in McComb, my husband and I would go in there and he say, "whats up cuz" since we had the same last name. RIP Ivory

“ Sending condolences to the family of our old friend Ivory. We are only now learning of the passing of a good man, friend and a warrior of Christ. We met during my service in the military & lost connections in the nineties. He was a fine soldier, who's kind nature and character made it easy to be in his presence ["watch the company you keep!"]. This was quite evident when I had the opportunity to converse with his parents (Dad) in the eighties and I knew he was not just a child of God, but that he demonstrated it in his everyday life. We pray your strength as a family, friend, or acquaintance and know that Ivory' living was not in vain! He is missed, but his memories continue to inspire us to be better individuals and so that we too can hear the Master say; "Well Done, thy good and faithful servant!" Love, The Knight's (William & Rose)

“ Ivory and I went to School together and we hadn't seen each other since we Graduated. 2024 would have been the first to my knowledge but God had other plans. Rest in Peace my Friend 💔

“ I have known Ivory since I was 14 yrs. old (1984). He worked with my brother at Sunflower on Georgia Avenue. I have felt like he was family for many years. He was always smiling and could give the biggest hugs ever. I will miss him greatly. My prayers are with his family.
