“ James, this is Charles, now living in Hawaii! I treasure that selfie we took at the Golden Corral When I was home last! I played at your house, when we was growing up together! I have fund memories of us attending church at St Paul together. I watched a lot of fish get cleaned in your backyard. I lived on the 900 block of Summit St. And you lived next door to Aunt Bessye Tobias- Turner on the 800 block of Wall Street. God Bless you, James!

“ Hi Jean and Family,
You know I had the opportunity to travel to a GM Quality Network Conference with James. He was one of my favorite people to travel with. He was not fussy or hard to get along with. He was also a joy to work with. Whenever, we had any problems, he was one of those people that would work to come up with a solution. I was saddened to hear of his passing, but know that he is resting in the bosom of Abraham.
