“ My Deepest condolences to Diane and Duke in your time of grief. Losing a love one is never easy especially a husband and father. I can remember the last time I spoke to Larry when the two of you came to visit me and I looked at him and asked how he had been he smiled and said ok just trying to keep a smile on my baby face. Everyone in the room looked at Diane and teased her because she was bashful and just said y'all know Larry crazy. They had a special way of doing their thing and he truly loved her and his son. I had seen the bitter and the sweet in Larry he was a father to Duke his son as well as the 2 other boys David and Donnie he helped raise to the men they are today and husband to Diane . I knew Larry 29yrs as a husband and father. He always loved to work , provide for his wife and kids and get his drink on. He will be missed so Diane I say to you let not your heart be troubled because just as God has prepared a place for Larry he is preparing a place for you as well. Larry fought the good fight and his battle is over, so is his suffering he has gone down the path we all must go. Thoughts and prayers are with you .
