“ Mr. Johnson always had a kind word, smile, and warm greeting for those he encountered. He was friendly and inviting even during the days when his health began to fail. He was a strong advocate for family, hard work, and togetherness. He wanted the best for everyone. He will be truly missed. We pray for peace and God's love to envelope you during this time of bereavement. Please take comfort in knowing, he made our lives and those around him brighter for having known him. We thank you for sharing him with us.
