“ Dear cousin, we all miss you dearly. I'm so very glad that I had the chance to visit you in Summit two Christmases ago and then saw you again in Detroit at the family reunion. I spoke with you last on December 8th and had no idea it'd be the last time. It's a reminder that we have to check on our loved ones regularly. Get your rest my dear and know that the family will take care of your babies and grand babies. ❤️❤️

“ Growing up with Sharon from a young age, I recall family gatherings as well as simple home visits. Often I'd look for you...that little lady with the big spirit and beautiful smile! Each time I found you, I'd find you the same... smiling, laughing, and hugging! I am certain you're doing those very things right now! You are now completely well, whole, and without boundaries. When I visit and attend future gatherings, I'll continue to look for you...I know you'll always be present!! Love Always, Tanya Fontaine

“ I have never been so lost for words, my family and I are simply heartbroken. You were my first cousin, my sister, and my friend. As u would always say “you’re my secretary get on your job” 😊 and that I was until your last breath 😭. Things just won’t be the same without you.

To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord, so I know that you are now in heaven watching over all of us. I have soooooo many precious memories, that I will cherish forever. A week before you made your transition the last time we could speak to one another I made you laugh. I will hold that moment in my heart knowing we shared one of our laughs together. Rest in paradise “I’ll bit” Gone but never forgotten....

Loving you always ❤️💖💖💖💖💖

“ My heart is broken and heavy. You have been my little sister since 1980. We have shared so many memories of good and bad times. We've laughed . cried , got upset sometimes with each other but we never lost the bond we had. I'm going to miss you but will forever cherish our memories you will forever be engraved in my heart. My sister my angel soar gracefully in heaven. Love you my little sister. Your big sister Carol Hunt - Graham
