“ Lazar and Haley set a good example for all of us about using what we learned from working on the farm to put food on our table. Wallace said "Lazar" is our Collard Plant man. We are thankful that our grand parents taught our parent and our parents taught us to work the land and share.

Staying connected to family is important! When Larry left us, I was at home, had planned to get Greens from Larry that same day. Larry's children made me welcome to get the greens, but Haley and Lazar let me know that they had greens and I was welcome to their garden too. These men understand God's secret to living...Use the land.

My dear cousins, we can't be with you today as we would like to but we hope you can sense and feel our love..please know that you are in our prayers. We Love all of you. Sim and Vera "Babe's" Bridges Children
