“ Whenever I came to New Orleans growing up (which was often) Aunt Helen would always ask what I wanted to eat because she knew I loved her cooking. She use to tell me "girl your mama know she can't cook lol" so when I didn't know how to cook something I would go to Aunt Helen. She would take me to play bingo with her and I think she is the reason I still go play to this day. When she moved to Atlanta our relationship grew closer and stronger. I loved our conversations about the family history and the stories of her and my mama growing up. Although Aunt Helen lived in New Orleans majority of her life and I lived in Atlanta, I never realize the amount of memories I had with her and I will forever cherish them. I'm truly going to miss you Aunt Helen.

“ My auntee loved Mardi Gras and my best memories of Madrid Gras as a child were made possible by her and Aunt Carolyn. Auntee did not just leave us. She made preparations. That takes courage. To my cousins. . .be strong. . .stay strong. To Auntee. . .Love you and give everybody a big hug for me.

As a young adult male growing up in New Orleans, Helen always took time out to sit and chat about life with me...I appreciated her knowledge and life teachings and will always cherish her memory.
