“ Mr. Leroy Lamarr Cook. So much I'd love to thank you for! I have such sweet memories of you and my mama. To see the love you both shared, ❤️ I needed that growing up. You showed me just how a man should treat a women and I'm so happy you got to be in my wedding, meet my husband and meet my first born. I miss going to Waynesville for Fourth of July, I miss school shopping at the outlets. I miss your advice and you dad jokes! I miss listing to various blues and jazz artists with you and mom. Sitting outside eating Doritos and sipping on a Pepsi! Good times. Thank you. You are truly missed. Squeeze my mama! Miss you both. -RaVonda

“ Mr. Leroy L. Cook,

I'm really gonna miss you! I realize I am not the only one. You were so special to so many especially your children who were your heart. Your friends and family who have gone before you will be in paradise to keep you company. Your earthly family and friends will have wonderful memories to keep us company. I know how important your church and the members were to you, and how much you gave of yourself for all. They will have a hard time trying to replace you. You gave of yourself to everyone you knew. For some of us you are irreplaceable. You never complained much even though your back caused you so much pain. Now you can ride and dance without pain. This summer's bike ride will need to be postponed 'til y'all meet on the streets paved with gold.

For 20 years you listened, you never called me out of my name nor did I you. I offered advice when you asked, we consoled each other, we went through one of your back surgeries and your cancer recovery together. Sometimes I got mad at you, I fussed, and cussed, but I never heard a harsh or cuss word from you. You just laughed at me and said one of your crazy sayings which kept me laughing. We laughed a lot! We talked about everything... You were such a private and proud man. Sometimes I ignored you, tried to dislike you ... but we had a special bond. Time, distance, and obligations made it so hard but our friendship never faltered. We saw each other only a few times since you moved, we were comfortable with our memories and talked often if only about the weather. I knew that was your excuse to call. You always checked on me. Very few even knew. We cared more than anyone knew. I knew.

Now you will not need to worry when you get to be 130 as we planned... no need to write those sticky notes to paste on the front door that say 'do not go out this door' or 'take a shower today' ... So glad you did not suffer but for a few minutes... I have a message you left on my phone recently ... "Hi honey, I'm home".. so I will play that message ever so often to hear your cheerful crazy country Mississippi drawl. Rest peacefully my buddy, my friend....until we see each other again!

“ *Churice and Tonja,
My heart breaks for you and I am so sorry for your loss. I know what it is to lose a Father and it leaves a hole that no other man can fill. Keep all your memories of him close to your heart and feel his love through those good times. Heaven has a new angel to look over you both. Please let me know if there is any thing I can do for either of you.*

*Love you both,

“ Words cannot take away the pain and sorrow that you are going through now and the days to come. Try to remember the great times you shared with your Dad and let the memories be of comfort to you now and during the difficult days ahead. Know that he loved you with all his heart, just as you loved him. And he will remain in your heart forever. I'm sorry I can't be there, but know that my thoughts and prayers are.
