“ It saddens me to see this, I met Malisa 15 years ago she always had a smile one of the sweetest people I've come encounter with..her heart was so pure and she was a loving person..we would go to the store and when she bought an outfit she would tell me "Get you something sister" I'm praying for the family she will forever be in my heart and memories..

“ To the Franklin and Wortham family: Words alone can't explain the hurt and pain I'm feeling right now over the passing of Malisa. I hope you find comfort knowing she no longer suffers here on this place we called Earth, but is resting in the arms of Jesus. Rest on, Malisa. I love you. See you in the morning.

“ So sorry to hear of your passing today...it sadden me deeply. We lost contact months ago, never will I get the chance to speak to you again on earth...but I know you gained your wings because you were a very sweet person...will always remember you Malisa. Its been my joy knowing you the short time worked together.
