“ To the Carr family with deepest sympathy in the loss of your love. Our prayers are with you and your family. Hold to God Unchanging hand I promise he would see you thru this time. Like Edward said that Butch was the best babysitter on the side of heaven, because my daughter Theresa(Bo) always want her uncle Butch to watch her when she was staying with her grandparents thru the week and did not want to come home on the week end, because she had to leave her Uncle Butch behind. It was hurt her to leave Butch. I always loved to heard Butch all her name. Butch hold Bo name as if he was singing. When I last saw Butch I ask him to call her name for me and it still sound the same as if it was yesterday. Butch take your rest. We will miss you down here, but one day we will meet again. Now you are gone home with Otis, Beulah, Pete and James they were waiting on you. We will always remember Butch. Love to all of you from Liz, Bo Timmie, Norrell, Ann, Jonah, Crystal, Drell, Anthony, Glo, Toni & Tara the whole Bernard and Bradley Family from New Orleans.
