“ Mom was an inspiration to me and everyone she met. Her laughter and sense of humor was unparalleled. There was never a dull moment when we were together.

Being the baby, I got to experience Mom on a softer level. Mind you, she never spared the rod, but we had more fun than anything else. I truly miss my Mom but she would want us to be happy and full of life and love like she was. The tears will fall but the love for Mom still grows stronger each day.

Mom loved life. She loved people. She loved her community. Mom loved friends. And Mom especially loved her family, sons and daughters, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, brothers and sisters, nephews and nieces, cousins, oh her in-laws like blood family. Mom did Not see color. Mom saw the heart. That's how Mom judged (for the lack of a better word) people. She taught her children the same. She made sure we did not think we were better than anyone else and at the same time wanted us to know no one else was better that we were.

My Mom was the PERFECT MOM for me. So, I will be selfish and upset for a while on her departure. But I know she is resting in a better place. It doesn't lessen the pain and my morning hasn't come yet, but it will.

Thank everyone for their prayers, support and love. Thank you Mom for believing in me, teaching me, crying with me, picking me up, putting me in my place, and, most importantly and something you did better than anyone, loving me.

YOU WERE THE PERFECT MOM FOR ME!!!! I Love ❤️ You.

“ Mother Pittman, to us Grannie Mae, took time one Saturday to teach us, the church family, The Church of God, to make butter! We so cherished the times she set aside to teach us to love us and just share common everyday joys of life. We traveled to Arkansas in February for a church event and Grannie Mae hung in there with us sharing some funny past time happiness with us and we teased her about her driving habit, mother had a heavy foot 😊 We're going to miss her presence, but we're satisfied knowing our Lord knows what's best for Grannie Mae, and we're grateful for the time we had with her! Thank you Lord! Thank you!!!!!! G. Henry

Sending God's love and strength during this difficult time. We are holding everyone up in prayer. Aunt Ottie Mae had the best plum orchard in the world.. As a child I remember visiting with Momo Maxcine. I will always remember the love and the beautiful smile she always welcomed you in with. Love Johnette, Michael, and Louise Fisher. (Honey's family)
