“ My deepest sympathy to the Williams' Family. I grew up with Ralph in the Beartown Community. I attended several church services with him as well. He always displayed kindness, love, and dedication to the word of GOD. My oldest son, Cleveland, and Ralph Jr. were high school friends. The world has truly lost a man of GOD, and a great leader of our COGIC family.

To GOD we give the glory, and forever praise for sharing Ralph with us on earth. Ralph, you were a good soldier for the Lord, your reward is waiting.
