“ I will always remember his voice and smile. Right before he would begin to sing I would belt out Sing Puff, because I wanted to encourage him and he would never let me down. He would sing. I am glad we would send each other encouraging notes. SIH Puff, I loved you but God love you best!

“ RJ is my little brother in Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. Our love of music brought us together, but our love for each kept us there. There are so many memories I will never forget from when you had to doggy sit my crazy dog to our crazy memorable trip to Memphis one night. You will never be forgotten brother. “ Ronald was my dear friend. We met each other singing together for JTQ and Nichelle Mungo. We had so much fun. We stayed in touch with each other after that inspite of the distance. I am so saddened by his passing. But I know that he is in a much, much better place than we are. He's not suffering anymore. I will miss him dearly.

“ I met RJ at Berklee. He was an awesome person and a gifted vocalist with a unique voice that could capture anyone's attention. He was my band's first Vocalist, and joined us on many of our first gigs helping us get to where we are now. He was a great friend, and I will miss him! Rest well my friend! My condolences to your family and friends.
