“ Friendship isn't just about two people who find a special bond. It's about the mutual respect and dedication that makes a friendship strong. It's what's at the heart of every friendship that matters. Such as admiration, loyalty, love, and especially Laughter. We exhibited all those things and we'll always be friends, you and me. I will always remember with a smile , as we called them, LAUGH LUNCHES, which turned into our phone calls. You were a wonderful, kind, and loving person and I'm glad to have been your friend.

“ I recall how Aunt Ruby & Uncle Langley would visit us in Minnesota from Chicago. They once had a siren on their car and blew it along the street in our small town. We have many fond memories of visits and conversations that we'll treasure always.
