

Mrs. Sallie Pearl Carr

August 11, 1944 - January 23, 2023

Mrs. Sallie P. Carr was born August 11, 1944, to Annie Mae & Roy Lee Edmond in Louisville MS. She was a member of West Sunnyhill M.B. Church was where she served as a choir member and other positions.

She graduated from Louisville Colored High School on May 19, 1962. After graduating, she moved to Chicago and began her working career. She worked at a few places before working at Stewart & Warner for many years and made many friends.

In 1966, she met Addo Carr, who told her at that time, "he didn't want to get serious, because he didn't want to get married." She in turn just smiled and replied "well baby your bachelor days are over!" They married on February 3, 1968. Together, they raised one daughter, Cynthia Carr-Brown. Mrs. Sallie P. Carr & her husband retired and moved back to Tylertown, Ms, in November 1987. They enjoyed their time and life together and became grandparents to Salisha Carr aka "Punkin," who they helped raise for two years. Mrs. Sallie P. Carr departed this life on January 23, 2023, in Scripps Memorial Hospital, La Jolla, California, after a long up and down battle with illness.
