“ I will forever cherish the bond given us as children as “cousins”, since our dads shared a God given brotherhood. Oh the days when they visited and we got our chance 😊. As life happened and we went our own way, I am pleased to say, we were able to rekindle our connection. I recall our last conversation regarding you cooking for my dad. He thought it was too funny when you said, “Now he knows I don’t be cooking like that.” Too funny!! Well, this is now my bid farewell, until we meet again. You now join your parents in your Eternal Home. I bid you RIP my Beloved ❤️
