“ Sis Valerie will be truly missed. Thanking God for the times we shared together and this year you were on the journey along with me and other sisters praying at our allotted time praying for 100 days You always called in to our prayer calls and listen to bible lessons by other sisters. Praying for your children and grandchildren as they remember and miss you dearly. God is letting you rest my sister from your labors and your trials.

“ Sis. Valerie, I will always remember the first time meeting you over the phone while getting ready for the 100 days of prayer. You continued to call after just to say you're praying for me and you love me. I felt so saddened when I heard of your passing because my other Valerie was gone. I will continue to pray for your family as you've asked. I love you sister and miss you! May God comfort your family during this tough time.
