“ I met Nibby and Shantina in the summer of 1994. She knew me but i didn't know her. She told me that she was going to keep my baby when he was born and i'm thinking I don't know this woman. She said" I know your family very well". You know she kept Jaylon when he was born and Ron Jr. caught the bus to her house after school. We were inseparable at that point. She loved her some Les and I loved my Ron. Her sons would put Lil Ron on their go cart and Les said" Y'all gonna let Ron get hurt"!! It came to pass, the kid ran into a tree. I have so many memories with Nibby and i'll cherish everyone of them. Love You Guys! Laura, Ronald Jr. & Jaylon

“ To the family, I will always cherish the memories your mother and I shared. She was the sister God blessed me to have as I relocated to Tylertown with my husband. There was always a smile she wore no matter what she was going through. A true friend is hard to find and truly she was a true friend and a sister. Thank you all for sharing her with me. I will truly miss her, but her memories will always be in my heart. Mae Foxworth
