“ My deepest condolences to the Magee family. Doug was a long-time friend and co-worker and I will miss our conversations involving Tennessee State University (TSU) and Jackson State University (JSU) football and bands. I first met Doug in late 1977 and from day one, we have remained friends. I highly respected Doug and admired his dedication to his family and career. His quiet and respectful demeanor ranks high among his many traits as a true friend and gentleman. RIP my friend!!

“ Doug was, a great National Bank Examiner. He was an old school credit guy who could more than hold his own with bankers of all sorts. Great memories of our work together in New Orleans at the old Hibernia NB. He commuted from Jackson for several years on a weekly basis. His memory will always bring a smile to my face. - Scott

“ - To my buddy Doug (“Ding-Goose”). Man, never in a million years would I have imagined that our friendship and brotherhood would come to such a sudden halt as this. But the Master had other plans for you so He called you home to eternal rest. I am going to miss you dearly my man, but I pray that you are now resting in the splendor and glory of God's eternal presence. Love you man...You did it well, not take your rest.

- To Sissy, Toya, Chelsey, and Gavin...we are so sorry for your loss and mourn with you. Our sincere prayer is that God will provide you His comfort and peace during this time.

Love always,
Larry and Janice Lundy; Fort Washington, MD.

“ I will never forget the larger-than-life smile and a great laugh that you couldn't help but join in. Doug was a tremendous help to me a pivotal time in my career. The bank Doug was assigned to was acquired and I was assigned to the acquiring bank. Doug never hinted at a concern with his lead role going away but instead mentored me, a younger examiner, to learn what it took to lead a credit team in a large bank. I remember him taking me aside during a major credit exam and taking the time to share with me a better way to meet our objective. He didn't come in with a big stick, he came in with that golden smile and provided needed career mentoring. Best to the family - know that he will be missed and his input to the OCC is still going strong.

May the Lord comfort you and your family during this time of reflection. I fondly remember my time with Doug as a co-worker. He was so laid back that my blood pressure would just drop being around him.
