“ Each time I came to Louisiana on vacation with my sister Monica, my daughter Angela, and whoever else was with us, we never really had any plans for what we were going to do from day to day-that is with one exception- that we would "go over to Mae's house". I felt so welcome in her home. And she would always have us laughing. Such a beautiful and loving person she was. Much love and comfort to her daughter, Michelle, to her grandchildren, and all her extended family, and to all who loved her.
